LOCAL AFFAIRS.

Town Notes.

The new Catholic Church will soon be under roof.

Smyrna folks have bought upwards of thirty seats for the oratorio, Tuesday evening.

W. K. Lockwood, of Middletown, has sold upwards of $400 worth of fat hogs to a Wilmington firm.

A great number of seats for the Helen Potter entertainment, December 27th, have been already sold.

The ladies of St. Francis Xavier Church cleared about $260 by their recent fair and festival at Warwick.

The Middletown Lecture Committee will meet at the Post office on next Wednesday evening at eight o'clock.

The Rev. H. Baldwin, Dean, of Havre de Grace, will preach at St. Anne's Church on Sunday next, morning and evening.

The tradepeople of Middletown are certainly prepared to suit all tastes in the matter of Christmas presents this season.

S. M. Enos and W. F. Shallowes, purchased a large lot of poultry in Virginia this week for shipment to Philadelphia.

Walter E. Hart, of Townsend, has bought a great deal of poultry this season and is advertising for more to fill orders for Christmas.

Travel over the Delaware railroad is very brisk. The annual pilgrimage of Peninsular shoppers to and from Philadelphia is about at its height.

Reserved seats tickets for the oratorio of Queen Esther may be bought at West & Carroll's drug store. Many have been sold for both evenings of the entertainment.

The proceedings of the recent convention of the Delaware State Temperance Alliance, at Middletown, have just been issued in pamphlet form from the TRANSCRIP. job office.

Winter hasn't got here yet. It may be fooling along, taking his time on the way, but he will get here sure. It is not necessary to advertise for him as lost, strayed or stolen.

The Irving Lyceum's next meeting will be Dec. 20th, when the semi-annual election of officers will be held. Next Monday evening the Lyceum will give way to the oratorio.

The Christmas and New Year cards shown this season are very pretty and many of them are far more costly than anything in the same line that was offered for sale in Middletown last year.

A number of young men who are fond of the dance have arranged to give a grand ball in Middletown, Hall on the evening of December 25th. About four hundred invitations have been sent out.

The directors of the Citizens' National Bank will meet for discount on Monday December 24th and Monday December 31st. The banks will, of course, be all closed on Christmas and New Year's day.

"My son," said a wthy farther at the beginning of the New Year, "make a resolution now that you'll never pay as you go." "But father," replied the offspring, "if I make that resolution, and stick to it, I can't go."

A. P. Shockley, of Elton, who for a number of years past has purchased the Christmas turkeys which Hamilton Dissent, of Philadelphia, presents to his employees, has commenced his annual search for turkeys for the same purpose this year. He wants 1500 of them.

Brown Knights, Knights Pratias, of Middletown, will hold a Physician Fair and Festival in the Town Hall on Friday 12th, 13th, 14th and 15th. It is to be a big affair. A town lot on West Green street, a steigh, a carriage, a buffalo robe and a long list of other prizes are to be disposed of by chance.

The monthly meeting of the Middletown Mutual Loan Association will be held next Tuesday evening. The money in the treasury will be offered for sale. Now is a good time for the prospering renter to build himself a home. He can borrow the money of the Mutual Loan Association and pay it back in a way that will hardly miss it.

The most favored route proposed for the connecting link of railroad between Odessa and Middletown is that which runs along the north bank of the Appoquinimink creek from Odessa to the Delaware railroad, thence by the side of the Middletown railroad to Middletown. M. B. Burris surveyed this route on Friday and Saturday last. It is about the only practicable route proposed.

County.

Congressman Lora is proposing to have Wilmington made an independent port of entry.

The Delaware Historical Society will hold its annual meeting in Wilmington on next Monday evening.

Roll of honor of the McDonough public school for the month of November: May Janvier, Minnie E. Vandegrift, Katie Busham, Frank Pool.

The term of imprisonment of Harley G. Brown, who wrecked a train on the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore railroad in 1877, expired on Monday, and he was released from New Castle jail. He went to his family at Trenton, N. J.

Townsend Items.

Samuel A. Townsend has opened a store in the store house near the railroad.

The new school house is nearly finished. The painters are now at work upon it.

A protracted meeting is in progress at the M. E. Church. Several persons have professed conversion.

—A formal meeting of the Mutual Loan Association money is at forty-six cents premium.

George M. D. Hart has been improving a lot on which he will soon begin the building of a new home for himself.

"Did the Witch of Endor Raise Samuel?"

On Sabbath, at 10:30 o'clock, in the Methodist Episcopal Church, the pastor will preach the third sermon of the series on the spiritual birth, the topic being, "The Conditions of the New Birth; or, What Must I do to Be Saved?" In the evening, at 7 o'clock, the subject will be, "Did the Witch of Endor Raise Samuel?"

The school of the Kingdom of Israel is located between the two Sabbath school lessons of December 16th and 23d, which fact makes the subject particularly interesting and appropriate at this time.

Smyrna folks are being served with Chicago dressed beef.

A frequent writer for the Smyrna newspapers is named Gage.

Ninety houses in Dover take water from the Holly water works.

A railroad round house and turntable are being built at Clayton.

A. P. Burkhardt gave readings at the Smyrna Town Hall Wednesday evening.

The Sussex county teachers are holding their annual Institute this week at Lewes.

Smyrna merchants pay six cents a pound in cash or seven cents a pound in trade for fresh pork.

About thirty thousand bushels of oyster shells have been recently put upon the streets of Dover.

A. B. Young, of Pennsylvania, has bought of Tighlman Farm a near farm Delaney's Chapel, containing ninety-seven acres, for $1,500.

The new reading rooms at Smyrna were opened on Thursday of last week. The set consists of four rooms—recitation, reading, gaming and smoking. The reception and reading rooms are handsomely furnished.

The Smyrna folks have the mumps with them now and, therefore, many of the Smyrna folks have a great deal more temporary cheek than they want. The attendance in the primary department of the public school was reduced one-half by the disease.

—The son of Thomas Williams of Raymond Neck, at West about three weeks ago to grow up with the country and got enough of "roughing it" pretty soon. This week he telegraphed to his father that he was at Plymouth, Indiana on his way home and out of money. He will probably have a better opinion of the Peninsula when he reaches his old home.

A simple and sensible church wedding occurred at Smyrna on Monday evening. Dr. William Daniel and Miss Susan C. Black slipped away from all their friends and were joined in marriage in St. Peter's Church, by the rector, Rev. Mr. Gordon. There were no spectators, because no person but the bride and groom and the officiating rector knew of the time of the marriage.

Maryland Matters.

The ladies of St. Rose Catholic Church, at Chesapeake City, are holding a festival at the Masonic Hall. It began last evening and will be continued until next Wednesday evening.

During the oyster season Crisfield oyster men packed 1,000,000 bushels, Cambridge 600,000 and Seaford 300,000, at all other points on the Peninsula about 500,000 bushels were packed.

A person representing himself to be the agent of a New York fashion journal is traveling through Cecil county swindling those who will bite at his offer of a year's subscription to a $3.50 Magazine for $2.

The Warwick public school, of which Miss Mattie Nichols is teacher, will give a public exhibition in E. E. Marsh's store room on Friday evening, December 21st. The proceeds of the entertainment to be used to buy a dictionary and globe for the school.

The "Veasey Farm" in Smyrna, Cecil county, a part of the estate of the late William Knight, was sold at public auction by the executor, at Elton, Tuesday. Mrs. Elizabeth Groome, of Elton, was the purchaser, at $34.50 per acre. The farm contains 345 acres and is a very fine piece of real estate.

Personal.

S. R. Stephens, who has been for some time at Mayses, Md., will next week return to Middletown to reside.

J. Preston Dunning, of Dover, is spending a season with his parents and will stay in Middletown until after the holidays.

The Lyceum.

A large audience filled the Irving Lyceum room on Tuesday evening to hear discussed the following question, "Which is man's greater worry, woman or business?" The Rev. Mr. Stengle opened with a lively speech in which he attempted to prove that about all the trouble man has had from Adam down has been caused by women. The speech was full of fresh humor that kept the audience in a merry mood during its entire length.

Two of the debators selected to support the side which contended that woman is the greater worry, were not present, and thus Mr. Stengle opened with a lively speech in which he attempted to prove that about all the trouble man has had from Adam down has been caused by women. The speech was full of fresh humor that kept the audience in a merry mood during its entire length.

Mr. Stengle, though Mr. Stengle didn't seem to need much help, Mr. Murray argued that woman is the greatest worry has in all the world; that the very sweetness of woman worries man about half to death. The other side of the question was supported by the Rev. Mr. Alexander, J. F. Deekayn and W. P. Price. The gentlemen were able defenders of woman as they were the case.

The judges decided that according to the argument, business is man's greater worry.

The discussion was lively and entertaining. Very pleasing musical selections were rendered by the ladies before and after the debate. The Lyceum will not have a meeting on next Monday evening. At the last meeting in the month, on the 31st, the semi-annual election of officers will be held.

Missionary Meeting.

At the Middletown, M. E. Church on Monday evening Miss M. A. Spencer, a returned missionary from Japan, talked to a large audience about missionary work in far-away Tokio. She gave much information in a pleasant way about the manners and customs of the Japanese people and told enthusiastically of the spread of Christianity in the field where she has been laboring. About seven years ago the first Christian baptism took place in Tokio and now there are in that city eleven Christian churches and more than fifteen hundred Christians. Miss Spencer is connected with the principal Methodist missionary school in Tokio. It is a school for girls. Pupils are taken for three years of service in the mission schools to which she belongs. Generous friends have given a large sum of money to help her in her work.

Miss Spencer is a woman of great energy and ability. She has been a full-time teacher in the schools of Tokio and now there are in that city eleven Christian churches and more than fifteen hundred Christians. THE TALL SYCAMORE WADASH.—The special corner of the Indianapolis (Ind.) Ind., was embodied in a recent communication the following from Hon. Daniel W.
Voorhees: I consider St. Jacobs Oil
a splendid remedy. I suffered an affection of the back and kidneys, with some rheumatism—in fact, so bad that I used St. Jacobs Oil, and found it very efficacious.
It gave me instantaneous relief, and finally cured me completely.
